

Leadership Seminar with Irwin Mitchell

Supporting School Leaders Navigate the Law in Relation to

SEN Students, Exclusions & Duties Owed by Schools

27th February 2019

11.00am - 12.30am

(Arrival and Registration from 10.45am)

Venue: Network@Winterhill

Winterhill School, High Street, Rotherham. S61 2BD

In response to the changing landscape and recent requests from school leaders, Learners First is delighted to be able to offer this leadership seminar which has been carefully designed to support school leaders explore and navigate the law in relation to supporting students with Special Educational Needs (SEN), including:

- consideration of the duties owed by schools to support SEN pupils;
- exclusions relating to SEN pupils; and
- how to maximise LA funding and support for SEN pupils.

The leadership seminar will be led by James Betts, Education Solicitor at Irwin Mitchell. James is an experienced solicitor who specialises in helping to resolve disputes relating to the entitlement of education, social care and other support. His work also includes support for school leaders in relation to aspects of school life including admissions, exclusions, complaints, Equality Act and judicial review claims. Pertinent themes related to these areas and the ones outlined above will be addressed throughout the seminar and there will also be a question and answer opportunity for delegates.

Audience: SLT Members with SEND responsibilities, Headteachers, Principals and MAT CEOs

Cost: Fully funded for delegates from schools and academies subscribing to Learners First or £80 per person for delegates from non-subscribing schools and academies.

To Book: Please email your name, school and contact details to teachingschool@learnersfirst.org
