

Learners First Primary TA/HLTA Good Practice Programme

This programme has been designed to develop the role of TAs /HLTAs and enable them to share good practice and develop further ideas to promote good quality teaching and learning. It has been organised into core themes which underpin the key requirements of classroom pedagogy. The programme will be delivered through a series of face to face sessions designed by a range of Specialist Leaders of Educations (SLEs) and serving school leaders and sessions will take place in school settings. Delegates are required to attend all sessions within the programme and there will be some reflective tasks connecting the face to face events.

Bookings should be made by emailing teachingschool@learnersfirst.org clearly stating the name, school and email address of the delegate.
